Top Certified Pre-Owned Deals for March, According to Autotrader

ATLANTA, March 19, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Spring is just around the corner and car shoppers are finding it might be the right time to score deals this month on certified pre-owned (CPO) vehicles. Dealers and automakers are offering unique and optimized sales to further entice customers.

"With the average transaction price of new cars topping$35,000, many shoppers might be surprised how expensive it can be to simply get a new version of their existing car," said Brian Moody, executive editor for Autotrader. "Certified pre-owned vehicles are the perfect solution. You get the peace of mind a factory backed warranty brings, a car that's been thoroughly inspected prior to purchase, new-car-like financing deals and a more budget-friendly price."

The expert editors at Autotrader are excited to announce their list of the best certified pre-owned deals offered for March.
