

Top Certified Pre-Owned Deals for October 2017, According to Autotrader

ATLANTA, Oct. 12, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Following in the wake of strong September vehicle sales, incentive deals on October's certified pre-owned \(CPO\) vehicles certainly don't fall short, as the time is now for car shoppers to rake in the deals this month.

"One advantage for shoppers today is that certified pre-owned cars and trucks are lightly used, and they have a long factory-backed warranty for greater peace of mind over a typical used car," said Brian Moody, executive editor for Autotrader. "We also saw more manufacturers provide a couple of options on CPO deals to give customers even more flexibility when it comes to saving on pre-owned vehicles."

Autotrader Editors' Top Picks for CPO Deals for October 2017

Audi's CPO program offers comprehensive protection for up to six years or 100,000 miles from the original sale date. Furthermore, shoppers through the end of the month can get 0.9 percent interest for up to 24 months on all CPO 2014-2016 Audi models.

BMW's CPO program changed at the beginning of this month to offer new warranty coverage. It now touts one year of comprehensive coverage with no mileage limit at the conclusion of the original 4-year or 50,000-mile warranty that's included on all new BMW models -- and drivers can purchase additional years of coverage if they like. The program is made even more alluring in October with the addition of a new special offer. That deal gives qualified shoppers 0.9 percent interest for up to 24 months on all certified pre-owned 2014 and 2015 BMW models -- a good deal with an impressively low interest rate, even if it is over a short term.

Chevrolet's CPO program offers two warranties. One holds powertrain coverage for up to six years or 100,000 miles from the original sale date, giving you peace of mind about the major items, such as the engine and transmission, that could prove costly. The other offers bumper-to-bumper coverage for one year or 12,000 miles from the day you buy the car (or on top of the original warranty).

Like Chevrolet, GMC's CPO program also offers two warranties: one that boasts six years or 100,000 miles of powertrain protection from the original sale date, and another that offers bumper-to-bumper coverage for up to one year or 12,000 miles from the day you buy your car.

Honda's CPO program offers two warranties. The powertrain warranty, which covers Honda models for up to seven years or 100,000 miles from the original sale date, is good for shoppers interested in making sure they have a warranty for major items like the engine and transmission. Honda's CPO program also offers a bumper-to-bumper warranty that offers one year or 12,000 miles of coverage from the date of purchase.

The Mercedes-Benz CPO program offers only one year of coverage but drivers can extend it to three years of unlimited-mile protection for a fee, which is appealing. In October, shoppers interested in a CPO C-Class can get a good deal: Mercedes-Benz is offering 3.49 percent interest for up to 36 months on all CPO 2014-2016 C-Class models.

For this month, Nissan's CPO program is also offering two strong incentives designed to entice car buyers. The best deal is for qualified shoppers looking to finance a car, as Nissan is offering 1.95 percent interest on all CPO models for up to 36 months, or 3.99 percent for up to 72 months. But shoppers looking for cash back can also get a good deal, as Nissan is offering up to $450 cash back on certain models.
