

Top Certified Pre-Owned Deals for February 2019 According to Autotrader

ATLANTA, Feb. 7, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- As the U.S. thaws from the polar vortex, car buyers can use this typically slow time of year for automotive sales to find a good deal on their perfect vehicle match. Certified pre-owned vehicles can help car buyers make the most of every dollar, and dealerships should have a great selection in February thanks to year-end trade-ins and vehicles coming off-lease.

"With winter weather affecting foot-traffic at dealerships, February can offer car buyers the opportunity to find a great deal on the car they want," said Brian Moody, executive editor for Autotrader. "Certified pre-owned vehicles should be high on every shopper's list since they come backed with warranties and still have years of useful life left, offering a like-new vehicle at a lower price."

The editors at Autotrader have rounded up some of the best CPO deals to help shoppers find that perfect certified pre-owned vehicle this month.
