

Autotrader Named America's Most Reputable Auto Retailer

- This recognition is based on Morning Consult's brand reputation data, powered by always-on survey research capturing the views of thousands of U.S. consumers every day.
- This reflects Autotrader's continued investment in transparency, innovation, and customer experience.

ATLANTA, Aug. 5, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Autotrader, a Cox Automotive brand, has been recognized as the Most Reputable Auto Retailer in the U.S., according to Morning Consult's Reputation Score data. This recognition is based on more than 80 million global survey interviews, capturing real-time brand reputation data across 5,000+ companies worldwide. Morning Consult's Intelligence is used by Fortune 500 companies and industry leaders to benchmark brand sentiment. The 2025 Most Trusted Brands report introduced Morning Consult's Reputation Score, helping companies understand how they are perceived on key components like trust in real time. Autotrader's inclusion underscores its role as a trusted destination for millions of car shoppers and dealers nationwide.

"Trust has always played a central role in the car buying journey, especially in a category where the investment is financially significant and the process is complex. Autotrader's ability to meet those needs at scale is what sets it apart," said Jessica Stafford, senior vice president of consumer solutions at Cox Automotive. "This recognition reflects our long-standing focus on transparency, innovation, and helping consumers, dealers and sellers connect with greater confidence."

As expectations for trust and transparency continue to rise in automotive retail, third-party platforms like Autotrader have become a critical part of the car buying process. With features like verified dealer listings, upfront pricing tools, vehicle history reports, and user reviews, Autotrader helps shoppers make informed decisions—and helps dealers connect with more confident, higher-intent buyers.

"The brands that rise to the top of our rankings are those that have built real equity with consumers over time—through consistency, transparency, and meaningful customer experiences," said Jeff Cartwright, chief growth officer at Morning Consult. "Autotrader's ranking reflects the trust it has earned by helping car buyers feel informed, supported, and confident throughout their journey."

The recognition adds to Autotrader's track record of leadership in automotive retail. As digital expectations evolve, the brand continues to invest in AI-driven tools, seamless online-to-offline experiences, and features that reduce friction and increase transparency across the shopping journey.
