

Autotrader, Powered by Auto Intelligence, Redefines the Personalized Car Buying Experience

Combining Trusted Tools and Resources with Consumer Data and AI, Auto Intelligence Comes to Life in New Creative Ad Campaign Featuring Actor Kenan Thompson

ATLANTA, Aug. 4, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Autotrader, a Cox Automotive brand, is redefining the car buying experience with the launch of its new national ad campaign titled, "Auto Intelligence Command Center." The campaign spotlights Autotrader's personalized shopping experience, built on the data, AI, tools and insights that empower car buyers to shop smarter, faster and with greater confidence.

As people increasingly turn to different technologies to simplify their daily lives, Auto Intelligence shows how Autotrader brings together car buyers' data and preferences with smart tools to search for available vehicles, determine budget and payments, and buy their perfect ride.

To bring the vision to life, Autotrader has tapped actor and comedian Kenan Thompson for his third national advertising campaign with the brand. Throughout a series of 30-, 15- and six second spots, Kenan takes charge of a high-tech Autotrader command center directly within users' mobile phones. Kenan orchestrates Autotrader's suite of tools to deliver a seamless, personalized experience, all at users' fingertips.

"Today's car buyers want technology that not only saves time but makes them feel confident every step of the way," said Greta Crowley, vice president of marketing at Cox Automotive. "Auto Intelligence is our way of showing consumers we are here to help navigate the car buying process with ease by providing them with smart tools, relevant data and from a brand they can trust. Kenan Thompson, a long-time partner of the brand, was the perfect fit to bring this message and campaign to life through his humor and personality."

The ad campaign is now live across a diverse range of channels, including out of home, digital, television, social media, and streaming platforms, in addition to cinema advertising, rideshare and airline partnerships.
