"Syfy presented us with a very different – and exciting – opportunity to work with the infamous Parker Brothers Concepts and create AutoTrader.com's ultimate 'dream machine,'" said Clark Wood, CMO of AutoTrader.com. "Dream Machines is an innovative program that captured our imaginations at AutoTrader.com. We enjoyed working with Marc and Shanon – they captured the spirit and love of cars that encapsulates the AutoTrader.com brand and culture. We hope the TV viewing audience is inspired by the car build-out and unveiling tonight on the show."

The "AutoTrader.com Dream Machine" features clear bullet proof floor boards and a 100% electric motor that can generate up to 500 horsepower. Measuring 160 inches in length, 80 inches in width and 52 inches in height, the custom made vehicle weighs 2,400 pounds and its wheel base is 100 inches.

"Without question, AutoTrader.com was the ideal partner for Dream Machines," said Chris Czarkowski, VP, Advertising Sales for Syfy. "Having the exceptionally talented Parker Brothers design and create an imaginative custom concept vehicle for the popular online destination for buying and selling cars was a perfect cross-industry collaboration."

The unique custom designed vehicle will reside at AutoTrader.com's headquarters in Atlanta, GA., and will be on exhibit at the upcoming Auto Shows throughout the year.

Additional photos and video footage will be posted to AutoTrader.com following tonight's episode as well as on AutoTrader.com's Twitter handle, @AutoTrader.com.

Dream Machines is produced by Triage Entertainment with Steve Kroopnick (Iron Chef America) serving as executive producer. Steve Nigg (American Chopper, UFO Hunters) is co-executive producer.
