AutoTrader.com, the world's largest automotive marketplace and consumer information website, today announces its continued sponsorship of ABC's "Monday Night Football." The deal includes airing of AutoTrader.com's popular spots during games and exclusive sponsorship of the postgame report following every "Monday Night Football" game.

Additionally, on September 8, 2005, AutoTrader.com will debut its new commercial spot. The spot marks a new direction for the company and includes messages aimed at both buyers and sellers. This extends AutoTrader.com's aggressive bid - which started with a summer TV campaign - to draw ads away from newspapers to the online classifieds company.

"We've had great success reaching key audiences with 'Monday Night Football' for the past two years and are looking forward to airing our new ad this season," said Clark Wood, vice president of marketing, AutoTrader.com. "The show has strong appeal to both men and women and builds upon our large audience of serious car shoppers across the country."

The postgame report, created especially for AutoTrader.com, features on-the-field commentary. Throughout the season, ESPN's "NFL Live" will feature AutoTrader.com spots and an AutoTrader.com sponsored "Drive of the Week." AutoTrader.com will also sponsor the widely watched Wild Card playoff games in the postseason.
