

Top Certified Pre-Owned Deals for November 2017, According to Autotrader

ATLANTA, Nov. 22, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- With November boasting some of the hottest sales events of the year – Black Friday and Cyber Monday – now is the time for car shoppers to get in the holiday spirit and take advantage of the extra special incentive deals being offered this month. For those who are looking to save money this holiday season, but are hesitant to purchase a used car and the repair costs that are often associated with them, certified pre-owned (CPO) vehicles can offer a happy medium.

"Lightly used and discounted, with a long, manufacturer-backed warranty, CPO vehicles provide car buyers peace of mind without breaking the bank," said Brian Moody, executive editor for Autotrader. "The added benefit to CPO vehicles is that many automakers offer deals and incentives on them to help win over car shoppers. However, with the holiday season on the horizon, many automakers are adding extra incentives to their already impressive deals, sweetening the pot further."

The editors at Autotrader have rounded up some of the top CPO deals this month to help spread holiday cheer and guide car buyers.
